

Fishing in the footsteps of Mr. Crabtree is written by author, international fishing guide and TV presenter John Bailey, with cartoon strips, illustrations and flourishes by artist, designer and writer Rob Olsen.

A contemporary homage to Mr. Crabtree Goes Fishing, packed full of useful tips for the modern angler as well as many reverential nods to the original classic, Fishing in the footsteps of Mr. Crabtree is both a pleasure and an informative read for everyone from the complete novice to the compleat angler...

Pre-order your copy now and be the first to receive it!

Containing previously unpublished photographs from Bernard Venables' private collection and contributions from some of our angling royalty, this is a must for every Crabtree kid of the past and the future...

Produced exclusively in the UK, this first edition hardback is a beautifully presented book filled with impeccably considered content and stunning illustrations.

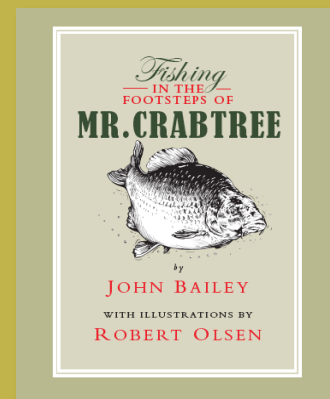

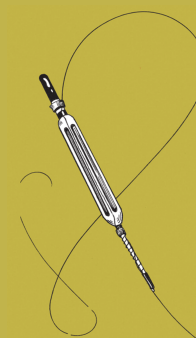

Prices

Special Edition - £45 (500)

Hardback - £26.99

www.mrcrabtreegoesfishing.com/shop

Preferred number allocations can be accepted. For more info contact shop@mrcrabtreegoesfishing.com

ISBN: 978-0-9573992-0-4